

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

“We need a common problem solving language.”
“Our team wants to get started in lean tools and concepts.”

As a globally recognized thought leader in lean principles and practices, LeanCor Training and Education delivers proven methodologies for individuals and groups to conveniently advance themselves and their organizations. With public and private offerings for the associate to executive levels, our curriculum and stories are rooted in our team’s collective operational and corporate experience.

ONLINE AND VIRTUAL

On-demand courses, group-paced programs blended with coaching, and virtual-live classes deliver practical information through engaging, interactive experiences.

Enterprise subscriptions and licenses available.

CLASSROOM: PUBLIC WORKSHOPS

LeanCor partners with several industry-leading organizations like Georgia Tech and the University of Kentucky to facilitate professional education programs throughout the year.

Public training offerings provide valuable peer-to-peer interaction, benchmarking, and real-time exchange of ideas.

CLASSROOM: ON-SITE, PRIVATE TRAINING

Perhaps your team cannot leave the site because of travel issues, or you have a larger group (10+). Private training allows you to customize the course content, format(s), and timing, while keeping the exercises and group discussion focused on your company, industry, and goals.

Whether you’d like to blend online modules with a 2-day workshop, or need a full-scale cultural transformation -- we are your one-stop shop for corporate lean training.

KEEP SKILLS CURRENT WITH APPLIED LEARNING THAT DRIVES BUSINESS RESULTS.

We help connect employee development to organizational effectiveness. Our hands-on approach leads to better comprehension, retention, and most importantly — applied capabilities to solve business problems through ROI-based continuous improvement.
