Committee Volunteer Opportunities.....

GET INVOLVED!!

You've joined us, now join in

The success of any Association ultimately depends upon the contributions of its members. The Pacific Southwest Association of REALTORS® relies upon the dedication and service of our REALTOR® and Affiliate members. By participating on a committee, each member helps to guide the Association by recommending improvements and overseeing programs and expenditures. Ideas that are discussed at the committee level become motions, which then are brought to either PSAR's Committee Councils or the Board of Directors for consideration.

REALTOR® and Affiliate Members who volunteer are the backbone of the Association. Your help, ideas and input are important to our success in the coming year. We invite you to participate in your Association by becoming a Member of one or more Committees.

Affiliate Committee: Maintains a mutually beneficial balance between REALTORS® and Affiliate members.
