Paint the World

From the mists of nothing
Where all is one, white rushing
Comes an emotion, word, feeling
Shiny glimpse of light, revealing
A kingdom of colour

You see white light
Know you can fly to new heights
You tell it right
Speak the truth with new sight
Turquoise: connect, create, talk bright
Green: grow strong towards the light
Black: be confident to take flight

-BRIDGE-

Drive for life, you feel
Love, head over heels
Passion, rose red power
It's your time
Your hour

-CHORUS-

You, you, you
Explode in colours
You, you, you
Burst in colours
You, you, you
Speak in colours
You, you, you
So paint the world

Know you can fly
Know the rainbow is there to find
Reach for the sky
See your true colours will shine
Turquoise: connect, create, talk bright
Green: grow strong towards the light
Black: be confident to take flight

-BRIDGE-

-CHORUS x2-

We are by your side!
