FIRE OF LEARNING

From the very beginning
We are protected by Mother Nature
And as we grow, we find our
Knowledge is a weightless treasure
So grow, let it flow
What we know
Is our will
Will take us beyond

Spread your wings and fly
Yearning for learning
Beauty transforming
Breaking free
You start the fire
It's your journey

The road is long
Sometimes hard
So take- It's yours
From the very start
Wake your dreams, they will grow
So you can play your part
Shine bright
Let it show, oh you know
If you listen
Listen to your heart

Spread your wings and fly
Yearning for learning
Beauty transforming
Breaking free
You start the fire
It's your journey

Use your imagination
Create your connection
All the way
Time to celebrate

Spread your wings and fly
Yearning for learning
Beauty transforming
Breaking free
You start the fire
It's your journey

Spread your wings and fly

We are in this together
