

Level 1 Training
Home Health Aide	Provide clients assistance in daily living and personal care services such as bathing, grooming, dressing, toileting, eating, provide transportation, meal preparation, light housekeeping, and medication reminders in client's home.
Direct Care Professional/Personal Care Aide	Provide clients assistance in daily living and personal care such as personal hygiene, cooking, socialization, or money management either in home or medical facilities. Clients can include seniors, people with disabilities, patients in medical rehabilitation, and more.
Level 2 Training
Certified Nursing Assistant	Provide basic nursing care to patients such as personal hygiene, feeding, and movement as well as perform basic procedures under direction of nurse supervisor.
Level 3 Training
Lab Support Technician/Medical Laboratory Scientist	Perform a variety of tests using advanced laboratory equipment that help diagnose and treat disease.
Phlebotomy	Collect blood samples from patients, check for quality and accuracy of sample, and responsible for safe delivery and accurate entry of data.
Sterile Processing Supply Technician	Use a variety of equipment to put together and prepare tools and instruments for medical procedures while maintaining a sterile environment.
Pharmacy Technician	Performs all duties in a pharmacy that do not require licensure including preparing, filling, and verifying prescriptions, provide service to patients, maintain accurate records, and communicate with other healthcare professionals.
Emergency Medical Technician/Paramedic	Provide direct emergency patient care prior to and during transport for all patient populations, including neonatal, infant, child, adolescent, adult and geriatric.
Medical Assistant/Licensed Practical Nurse	Perform clinical duties including taking medical histories, recording vital signs, reviewing treatment procedures, draw blood, take EKG's, preparing and assisting with examinations, and provide supportive services to patients.
Level 4 Training
Surgical Technician	Assist in surgical operations including preparing instruments and equipment, cleaning surgical equipment, and assisting in procedures.

Registered Nurse	Provide direct patient care such as observing and assessing patients, assisting physicians during treatments, instructing patients in home care or maintaining good health practices, administering medications, and helping patients get through a wide variety of medical needs.
------------------	--