

About EY	Challenges
A global professional services that provides assurance, advisory, tax and transaction advisory services. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 270,000 employees</li> </ul>	A growing global workforce and competitive market required that this professional services firm explore alternative training delivery methods to meet the continuing education needs of its team members without impacting client services and delivery. The curriculum had to be customized for the culture, values and the specific learning needs of its workforce. Additionally, the training participants had to be able to receive CPE credit for attending training.

Why Working Simply

The professional services firm wanted to provide proven tactical and practical productivity training to its team members that aligned with its culture and met the learning needs of its team members. The virtual instructor-led, custom training programs enabled the team members to improve their productivity, more efficiently manage their inboxes and efficiently delegate. The participants received CPE credit for each course they completed.
