User Choice Program (Apprenticeship):

The User Choice Program provides a public funding contribution towards the cost of training and assessment for eligible Queensland apprentices and trainees. The government will pay a portion of the training costs for the course directly to the chosen training provider up to a set amount. You will be required to pay a co-contribution fee to the registered training organisation.

The Student Co-contribution Fee is calculated at $1.60 per nominal hour for each Unit of Competency delivered for the qualification and therefore vary depending on the qualification and electives chosen. The Student Co-Contribution Fee may be paid on behalf of the student by their employer or a third party.
