PARTNER EVOKO LAUNCHES NEXT GENERATION MEETING ROOM PANEL 'NASO'

-Creates significant revenue opportunity for SmartSpace-

SmartSpace Software Plc, (AIM:SMRT) the leading provider of 'Integrated Space Management Software' for smart buildings, commercial spaces and hospitality, is pleased to announce a new channel for the sale of its software on a SaaS basis through its partnership with Evoko, the market leading manufacturer of meeting room panels.

Evoko has today announced the launch of Naso, its next generation meeting room panel. Naso will be showcased to Evoko partners from around the globe attending the ISE trade show in Amsterdam.

As well as offering enhanced meeting room functionality built into the new Naso panel, Evoko will offer integrated software on a subscription basis enabling users to manage bookings via Microsoft Outlook and a new Naso App. In addition, users can subscribe for additional modules to help them manage desks and provide visitor management functionality, giving customers a completely integrated workplace management solution.

SmartSpace has worked with Evoko as its exclusive software partner to create the Naso software suite and its share of the revenues expected to be generated from the sale of Naso panels and associated software subscriptions helps support the Group's expectations for the 2021 financial year.

Commenting on today's news Richard Gluckman, CEO of Evoko, said: "Evoko Naso is our next generation product and builds on the success and experience from having developed room booking systems since 2009. It takes us beyond room booking and brings pleasurable professional advantages to the entire modern workplace. Naso has been in development since 2018 so we are now very happy to finally be able to showcase it to our partners for the first time".

Frank Beechinor, CEO of SmartSpace, said: "We have made a considerable investment over the past two years developing the software platform for Naso. We share Evoko's excitement at seeing this new generation meeting room platform finally launch in the market. This partnership exposes SmartSpace to Evoko's significant user base around the globe. The reputation of the Evoko brand combined with its direct and indirect channels create a potentially significant opportunity for SmartSpace".
