This is the first of a new line of Centerfire Rifles for Rock Island Armory. It’s intended for mid-range use with a mounted scope and is perfect for varmint hunting.

We’ve named this beauty to be exclusively chambered in Armscor’s signature caliber, .22 TCM — which happens to scream at over 2,800 fps. The 5-round mag can be interchanged with the 73 round .22 TCM pistol mag to turn it into a high-capacity rifle. EASY OR.

IT’S IN OUR DNA

I’m Mike Scelsi. As a nationally ranked shooter and instructor, I know what I like.

I only use guns I trust and fit my style of shooting. Like the target-grade Rock Island Armory 1911 Match. It is a competition gun right out of the box. It’s equipped with adjustable rear sights and front sight. And it has an extended beavertail for safety and accuracy.

I need a gun that won’t let me down when it’s time to pull the trigger. Looks like I found it.

Shooting, it’s in my DNA.
