

OUR CORE VALUES

Dean & Draper is the acknowledged leader in commercial risk management services for the past three decades. We attribute this to our company's core values. These are the principles that guide our organization and employees to deliver the best possible solutions to our clients individual needs. At Dean & Draper we LEAD.

LISTEN

We will earnestly listen to our clients individual circumstances and needs. There is no other way to tailor a custom solution to the risks our clients face without understanding our clients.

We strive to educate our clients on what risks they face and how they can transfer that risk. We employ highly educated professionals and take pride in the fact that we pay 100% of our employee's continuing education.

EDUCATE

ACTIVE

We are active in our local communities. We believe in giving back to others. Through our support of the PTSD foundation and our focus on employee charitable involvement in the local community, we take pride in our communities and it shows!

The professionals at Dean & Draper are dedicated to our clients' success. Risk management and insurance play an integral role in your business and life. We are here to celebrate with you during the good times and we are dedicated to being by your side through the bad. We are your trusted advisers.
