ISF MIDDLE SCHOOL (GRADE 5-8)

MUSIC ENSEMBLES

From grades 5 to 7, all ISF students choose a music ensemble: voice, strings, or band. Concerts take place twice a year for these ensembles. From Grade 8, students choose between art and music.

REGULAR ASSESSMENTS

From Grade 5, students take weekly assessments in various subjects to ensure that everyone is on track. If a student is falling behind, s/he will be given academic support during school.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Students are encouraged to participate in extra-curricular activities and can choose from a wide range of options including crafts, music, drama, debate, chess, robotics, science club, and sports. Korean students take native language classes once or twice a week. Students are also encouraged to join the Student Life Organization (SLO®) and gain valuable leadership, communication, and teamwork skills.
