DATA CONTROLLER		DOCUMENT	LEGAL REF.
	Jacobacci & Partners S.p.A. Corso Emilia, 8 10152 Turin (TO)	PRIVACY POLICY referring to the processing of the personal data of customers/suppliers and their representatives	Reg.EU 2016/679 – G.D.P.R. General Data Protection Regulation Art.12, 13, 14

GENERAL INFORMATION

Customers/suppliers (data subjects) and their representatives (hereinafter "data subjects", pursuant to Art.4(1) of the GDPR)) are hereby informed that the professional relationships established with the undersigned Controller may involve the processing of personal data, in compliance with the following general principles:

- All data is processed in a lawful, correct and transparent manner with regard to the data subject, in accordance with the general principles laid down in Art. 5 of the GDPR;
- Specific security measures are observed to prevent data loss, unlawful or incorrect use and unauthorised access;
- The Data Controller is the undersigned Jacobacci & Partners with registered office in Corso Emilia, 8 – 10152 Turin (TO) - (Contact details: Tel. 0112440311 E-mail jpto@jacobacci.com);
- The Data Controller has chosen to appoint a Data Protection Officer, who may be contacted to exercise all rights laid down by Arts.15-21 of the GDPR (right of access, rights to rectification, erasure, restriction, portability, right to object), as well as to withdraw consent that was previously granted or to lodge a complaint with the Supervisory authority for protection of personal data.

DATA SUBJECT

The Controller processes personal data for identification of the client/supplier (for example, name, surname, business name, registry/taxation data, address, telephone number, e-mail, banking and payment references) and of its operational contacts (name, surname and details of contact person) as acquired and used in connection with performance of services supplied to the Controller.

PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS OF THE PROCESSING

The data is processed for:

- Concluding contractual/professional relationships;
- Fulfilling pre-contractual, contractual and taxation obligations arising from ongoing relationships, as well as handling the required communications connected with them;
- Fulfilling obligations laid down by legislation, regulations, Community regulations or by order of an Authority;
- Exercising a legitimate interest as well as a right as Controller (for example: the right of defence in law, safeguarding of credit positions; normal internal requirements of an operational, management and accounting nature).

Failure to supply the aforementioned data will make it impossible to establish a relationship with the Controller. The aforementioned purposes represent, under Art. 6, subparagraphs b,c,f, a valid legal basis for lawfulness of processing. Should an intention to perform processing for other purposes arise, special consent will be requested from the data subjects concerned.

METHOD OF PROCESSING

Processing of personal data is carried out by means of the operations shown in Art. 4 no. 2) of the GDPR, or to be exact: collection, recording, organisation, storage, consultation, processing, adaptation or alteration, selection, retrieval, alignment, use, combination, restriction, disclosure, erasure or destruction of personal data. Personal data shall be subject to processing both in paper and electronic and/or automated form. The Controller shall process personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected and related legal obligations.

SCOPE OF THE PROCESSING

The personal data shall be processed by internal subjects officially authorised and trained, pursuant to Art. 29 of the GDPR. The scope of disclosure of the personal data may also be requested, to obtain precise indications as to any external subjects operating as independent Processors or Controllers of the processing (consultants, technicians, banking institutes, carriers, etc.). Please note, also, that the personal data may be subject to intercompany disclosure among Group companies. The data is not subject to dissemination or transfer to countries outside the EU. If it is required, in case of tenders/subcontracts or fulfilment of regulatory obligations (e.g. fair trade, anti-corruption, anti-mafia, anti-money-laundering, etc.) to collect personal data of their employees from clients/suppliers, it shall be agreed between the parties that this company is entitled to processing as an external Data Processor (Art.28 GDPR) or an authorised subject (Art.29 GDPR). As part of this relationship, the undersigned company undertakes to process such data in compliance with the conformity requirements established by the GDPR, guaranteeing any disclosure to further parties exclusively within the scope of specific legal obligations.

RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS (GDPR Arts. 15-22)

At any time, data subjects may exercise the right to:

- Obtain confirmation as to the existence of personal data;
- Obtain information on the processing purposes, the categories of personal data, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data has been or will be disclosed and, when possible, the storage period;
- Obtain rectification and erasure of the data;
- Obtain restriction of processing;
- Obtain data portability, i.e. receive it from a data controller, in a structured format, commonly used and readable by an automatic device, and transmit it to another data controller without hindrance;
- Object to processing at any time and also in the case of processing for direct marketing purposes;
- Object to an automated decision-making process concerning natural persons, including profiling;
- Lodge a complaint with the Italian Data Protection Authority.
