Let's get started

Your first destination in Moovila is the Home Screen, which will give you a sense of where you stand with your current work and teams.

The more you use the system, the more dynamic and helpful the Home content will become. Since you're just getting started, there won't be much to report just yet. Eventually, this will become your go-to temperature check of SmartTask status, project delays, outstanding work assignments, capacity concerns, team messages and more.

Use this view to see assigned SmartTasks as a connection between team members with the color denoting whether a SmartTask is on time (purple) or behind (red). The numbers in each team member's avatar correspond to their assigned SmartTasks, with overdue displaying in red.

b. Bubble View: In this view the team's primary leader is displayed at the top and denoted by a purple star. Team members with white stars are leaders and those without stars are simply team members. The numbers found in each team member's avatar correspond to the number of SmartTasks that they've been assigned, with late counts displaying in red.

c. Capacity Planning View: This view lists team members alphabetically and displays their availability for the coming 90 days. It also provides visualization around days that are over/underbooked with work and the breakdown of work in Moovila vs. meetings for each team member.

Discover and share in the Library

Your Library is the place to share documents, templates and attachments. You can publish to Enterprise channels or directly to Teams, depending on who you want the audience to be. Enterprise channels are defined by your Enterprise and visible to everyone in your Enterprise. Team channels are only visible to the members of that Team.

To add something to the Library, publish a SmartTask. Then, the published SmartTask becomes an actionable item that can be shared with and/or assigned to teammates.
