

Vantage Health Plan is required by federal law to provide the following information.

Nondiscrimination Notice

Vantage complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation or any other legally protected characteristic. Vantage does not exclude, deny benefits to, or otherwise discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation or any other legally protected characteristic.

Vantage provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us. Those services include qualified sign language interpreters and written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats).

For people whose primary language is not English, Vantage provides free language translation services. Those services include qualified interpreters and information written in other languages. You can use Vantage's free language translation services by calling the "Members" phone number on the back of your Member ID card. For Members who are deaf or hard of hearing, please call for teletypewriter (TTY) services at (866) 524-5144.

If you believe that Vantage has failed to provide these services or has discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, or any other legally protected characteristic, you can file a grievance with Vantage or the U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights.

If you would like to file a complaint directly with Vantage, you can reach us in person, by mail, by fax, or by email at the addresses below:

Vantage has adopted internal grievance procedures for providing prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation or any other legally protected characteristic. Any person who believes someone has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability, may file a grievance under Vantage's grievance procedure. It is against the law for Vantage to retaliate against anyone who opposes discrimination, files a grievance, or participates in the investigation of a grievance. Depending on the type of grievance, a 60-day filing limit may apply. To learn more about Vantage's grievance procedure, you can call or email our Civil Rights Coordinator at the addresses above or you can visit our website at www.vantagehealthplan.com/vhpnondiscriminationgrievanceprocedure.
