

DISCLOSURE/DISCLAIMER

The Federal Trade Commission Regulation Rule for "Funeral Industry Practices" requires certain disclosures and prohibits misrepresentations. This Disclosure/Disclaimer is a list we ask those we serve to read and sign if during these arrangements our firm did do the following.

Arrangements for _____ Date of Arrangements _____

I/We made the arrangements for the funeral and final disposition of the above person and do hereby attest to the following:

I/We were given/shown a General Price List effective February 1, 2020 prior to discussing prices, services, or Merchandise.

I/We were given/shown a Casket Price List effective February 1, 2020 prior to discussing prices of caskets.

I/We were given/shown an Outer Burial Container Price List effective February 1, 2020 prior to discussing prices of outer burial containers.

I/We were not told that embalming is required by law and were told the law does not require embalming except in certain special cases. If provided, this was done with my/our permission.

I/We were not told that any law requires embalming for direct cremation, immediate burial, a funeral using a sealed casket, or if refrigeration is available and the funeral is without viewing or visitation and with a closed casket.

I/We were not told that any law requires a casket for direct cremation.

I/We were not told that state law requires the purchase of an outer burial container or any of the funeral goods or services I/we selected except as set forth on the statement of goods and services selected.

No claims were made to me/us as to the merchandise or other offerings of the funeral firm (embalming, casket, outer burial container) that embalming or the use of any merchandise available from the funeral firm would delay the decomposition of the remains for a long term or indefinite time, or would protect the body from graveside substances. No representations or warranties were made to us about the protective features of caskets or outer burial containers other than those made by the manufacturer. The only warranties, expressed or implied, granted in connection with goods sold with the funeral services we arranged were the expressed written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers thereof. No other warranties of merchandise fitness for a particular purpose were extended to us.

I/We were not told that the amount of each cash advance item was the cost to the funeral firm. We were told the cost may be different based on the volume or cash discounts or other professional or trade customs.
