

VOTED #1 HEALTHIEST SPORT BY FORBES MAGAZINE!

- Safe, fast, fit and played all year around
- USA has the fastest growing participation worldwide
- Over 150 middle & high school teams
- Over 130 College, university and Ivy league teams

WHY SQUASH?

- Over 20 million squash players participate regularly world-wide in over 185 countries.
- The No. 1 ranked male player is from Egypt. The no. 1 ranked female player is from Malaysia, giving the sport a truly global presence.
- Squash players are highly educated, of which 98% are college graduates and 57% having further graduate degrees.
- The United States has the fastest growing squash participation worldwide - the Sports & Fitness Association (SFIA) shows 82% growth overall between 2007 and 2011 to more than 1.2 million squash players.
- More than 200 colleges and universities have courts, including 23 of the top 25 colleges as ranked by Forbes magazine.

- To learn more: www.squashrev.com
email info@squashrev.com

JUNIOR SQUASH

- Junior participation has grown over 400% since 2007 and this number rapidly continues to grow 20-30% annually
- In the 2014 High School Team Championships, they hosted over 150 teams from more than 20 states. In 1998, only 43 schools had squash programs.
- Since the 2007-2008 season, the number of teams in the U.S. High School Team Championships increased 88%! This is the largest squash tournament in the world with more than 1,500 players!

VARSITY SQUASH

- In the last five years, there has been an 18% increase in the number of club and varsity college programs, and can expect this number to continue to grow as the increased junior participation continues to drive more club and varsity program development at the collegiate level.
- There are 81 men's and 46 women's programs now. Some notable new programs in the last decade include:
Dickinson College, Boston College (M & W), Bryant (M), Columbia (M & W), Drexel University (M & W), Georgetown (M & W), North Carolina (M), Notre Dame (M & W), New York University (W), Northeastern (M & W), Roger Williams (M), Haverford (W), Stanford (M & W), Kenyon College (M), Lafayette (M), Middlebury (M & W), University of Virginia (M & W), Vanderbilt (M & W), Vermont (M & W).

For a full list of College squash teams
<http://collegesquashassociation.com/>

& SQUASH VIP GUEST PASS

WELCOME MY FRIEND: _____

MEMBER NAME: _____

MEMBER E-MAIL: _____ PHONE: (____) ____ - _____

sport&health
sportandhealth.com

*Some restrictions may apply

SR SQUASH
REVOLUTION