

The OptionFinder G3 platform provides breakthrough functionality in a compact size. It provides superior radio range and fast and reliable tabulation in meeting facilities with radio interference.

G3 lets you fully engage your meeting participants with a large, bright LCD display with two-way personalized messages.

When your interactive requirements require mission critical data collection and scalability for large audiences, the OptionFinder G3 system gets the job done.

Key Benefits

Features

Benefits

3 Line Display

- Provides for login and sophisticated text communication
- Two way confirming messages to each participant (e.g. YES Received, NO Received)

Multi-Digit Input

- Allows participants to enter and view response choices with up to 140 numbers or characters
- Offers the ability to select several answer choices for the same question for ranking or pick all that apply selections.

FHSS Radio Technology

- Proprietary Frequency Hopping Spread Spectrum radio chips with secure encryption.
- Superior range, reliability and security to reduce the frustration of lost responses
- Supports a base station range of 650 feet.

Scalable

- Supports audiences of up to 15,500 participants in a single location and up to 31 sites