ABOUT PINK PETRO & COACH'S CORNER

Pink Petro is a global organization that believes the future depends on education, inclusion and community.

We educate through experiences, not events, because movement requires more than moments.

We promote inclusion over diversity, because while changing your numbers is great, changing your culture is better.

And we build community, not networks, because, while networks build individual connections, communities promote the greater good.

Coach's Corner is a benefit of paid membership. It is our monthly member's only program on Pink Petro TV featuring career and professional development experts from across the industry and across the globe.

Our coaches answer your questions and give you practical advice on topics ranging from work-life balance to career guidance, and other challenges you face.

No matter the subject, our coaches are here to help.
