

Business Standard PBX

The NetFortris Business Standard PBX solution delivers a comprehensive communications experience for businesses of all sizes. As a fully hosted and managed cloud-based offering, NetFortris Business Standard PBX enables enterprises to extend voice and multi-media communications to any connected phone, PC, tablet or smartphone over our secure, fully-redundant and private MPLS network.

As businesses move at a rapid pace to keep up with technology advancements and support a distributed workforce, the capabilities of the NetFortris Cloud PBX solution enables flexible communications with anyone, anywhere, and on any device.

Benefits at a Glance

- Save money by replacing expensive PTSN or POTS lines with SIP and VoIP
- Preservation of cash with no up-front capital expenditure
- Monthly predictable operating expenses, no surprises
- One trusted partner with complete communications offering
- Carrier-class reliability with guaranteed voice quality
- PCI-certified network to protect your customers and business
- Technology obsolescence protection with ongoing feature
- On demand scalability to support business expansion
- Easy adds, moves and changes

Mobility

Full featured softphone clients and mobile apps give you the freedom to work and communicate on your own terms - from anywhere and any device.

Unified Communications

Leverage business essential UC features such as presence, instant messaging, mobility, and video conferencing to maximize work efficiency.

Call Recording

A premiere business call recording engine with built-in voice analytics and advanced search for improved customer experience and business compliance.

Contact Center

Deliver exceptional customer experience with skills-based routing, multi-media queuing, IVR, and real-time monitoring and analytics.

Receptionist Console

An innovative screen based console to effectively manage important calls with real-time phone status for all employees, regardless of location.

These optional services can be easily integrated to the Netfortris Cloud PBX Enterprise solution

State-of-the-Art Phone Choices

Seamless communications require seamless integration of devices. We partner with the leading business phone vendors and mobile device makers to ensure that your employees are connected.

The Polycom VVX 600 gives executives and managers the best unified communications experience and the industry's highest quality business media phone. This phone features an ergonomic design, multi-touch user interface for easy navigation, HD Voice quality and high resolution color. An optional camera gives the phone video conferencing capability.

The Polycom SoundStation IP 6000 is a premium IP conference phone designed for midsize rooms and offers remarkable HD Voice to deliver superior performance and clarity. Features include full-duplex and echo cancellation, resists mobile phone interference, backlit display, speed dial, distinctive ring and optional expansion mics.

The Yealink SIP-T48G offers a revolutionarily new design with its Optima HD Voice technology to maximize acoustic performance, creating a virtual face-to-face experience. Dual-port Gigabit Ethernet ports come standard for advanced connectivity. Features include built-in USB port, Bluetooth headset support and large 7" color touch screen.

Polycom VVX 500
- 12 SIP line
- Dual POE ports
- 3.5" touch screen

Yealink SIP-T46G
- 6 line Gigabit
- Optima HD Voice
- 4.3" color display

Yealink SIP-T42G
- 3 line Gigabit
- Optima HD Voice
- 2.7" backlit display

Yealink SIP-T23G
- 3 line Gigabit
- HD Voice
- 132x64 pixel screen

Polycom VVX 310
- 6 line phone
- HD Voice
- 208x104 backlit LCD