

2019-2020 PORTAGE HEALTH FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP

The Portage Health Foundation (PHF) has a scholarship program for students graduating from the below-listed high schools in Baraga, Houghton, Keweenaw, and Ontonagon counties. PHF will award one (1) $1,000 scholarship to a graduating senior from each school. The scholarship is a one-time award. PHF's intention is that recipients use the scholarship to help pay for education costs at a post-secondary school of their choosing. The successful recipient will meet the below-referenced criteria and submit their application to PHF who will anonymously review the finalist applications to make an award decision. The names of the applicants will be redacted prior to being presented to the PHF Grants Management Committee for review and award selections. Please note that this scholarship award is separate from the PHF "Making a Difference Scholarship" program administered by Michigan Tech University.
