

Diversity Vision Statement

Manufacturing Works values diversity as essential to its mission and is committed to creating an inclusive environment where all of the organization's programs, materials, and activities are sensitive to those it serves and responsive to their needs; and where all those representing Manufacturing Works– volunteers, board members, staff, and others who support the organization, reflect the communities we serve and share fully their talents, skills, and passions in pursuit of our mission.