Increase brand awareness with a Social Wall

According to studies, 71% of consumers who use social media will be more likely to spend money with a brand they've connected with on social media.

Raydiant gives you the ultimate tool to create a Social Wall, allowing you to easily create engaging displays that showcase your company's Instagram account, photos and videos of properties, and happy residents.

Bridging the digital/real-world divide has never been easier.

BEFORE RAYDIANT

Managing multiple locations is a hassle

According to this survey, the number one concerns among property managers was the difficulty and inefficiency of managing multiple moving parts.

Raydiant allows you to manage multiple locations simply and easily from one remote location. Update listings, display virtual "SOLD" or "under contract" signs, or change information instantly from your own desk.

With streamlined and centralized management tasks, you'll be able to widen your company's geographic footprint and add properties without needing to add more employees.

BEFORE RAYDIANT

Tough to manage showing schedules

Statistics show that 40% of renters usually look at properties after work or on the weekends. This presents a staffing challenge to property managers if they want to accommodate these customers.

The solution is an industry shift towards self-showings. Raydiant's beautiful multimedia displays can provide potential renters or buyers with all the information they need to make a decision about a property. That means companies can offer showings an average of 12 hours a day, 365 days a year without adding staff.
