

FORENSIC TECHNOLOGY

Senior Systems Administrator

Job summary

Reporting to the Information Technologies Manager, the Senior Systems Administrator is responsible for managing infrastructure hardware and software, as well as various corporate server based applications.

Roles and responsibilities

- Design, implement and manage enterprise storage system environments for corporate use.
- Design, implement and manage VMware and Hyper-V virtual infrastructures.
- Participate in the design, implementation and management of Microsoft Active Directory environments including all supporting infrastructure services.
- Implement and manage application servers from multiple vendors.
- Participate in the design, Implementation and management of Microsoft SQL databases.
- Participate in the design, implementation and management of business continuity programs required for corporate IT systems.
- Provide advanced technical support for both internal and external clients.
- Provide technical coaching for other employees and ensure that knowledge transfer occurs within the IT group in a timely manner for the proper support of IT systems
- Ensure the necessary support instructions and documentation are provided to corporate IT Helpdesk to support systems and end-users.
- Test and deploy upgrades to the servers/clients.
- Ensure the proper documentation of the corporate IT core server \ storage infrastructure is created and maintained.
- Create, implement and maintain the tools and scripts necessary to properly support the corporate IT environment.
- Participate in any applicable internal corporate information security initiatives

Qualifications and experience

- IT diploma (Bachelor, DEC or AEC)
- Minimum of 8 years' experience
- Ability to work in a team or autonomously
- Highly developed sense of urgency

If this challenge is of interest to you, please send your resume to Lavinia Bulai (Lavinia.Bulai@ultra-ft.com) by November 30th, 2017 .We are an equal opportunity employer

- Innovative
- Fluently bilingual (French and English)

Advanced knowledge of:

- Microsoft Enterprise server applications such as IIS, Skype for Business and Exchange
- Microsoft Windows Server OS
- Microsoft SQL Database
- VMWare and Microsoft Hyper-V virtualization software
- Enterprise Server and Storage solutions from major vendors (HP, Lenovo, IBM)
Microsoft Powershell

If this challenge is of interest to you, please send your resume to Lavinia Bulai (Lavinia.Bulai@ultra-ft.com)
by November 30th, 2017 .We are an equal opportunity employer