MORTGAGE EXCHANGE™ Software Integration and Web Services

Don't re-key data between software platforms. ABT's MORTGAGE EXCHANGE™ allows data to flow seamlessly between dissimilar software platforms. Eliminate's mistakes and inefficiency.

Flexible Cloud Infrastructure:

Our cloud-based MORTGAGE EXCHANGE™ is highly configurable. Since the system is in the cloud, you do not need to maintain it on your own systems. We take care of it.

Leverage Your Data:

Using MortgageExchange™ allows you to move and access your data in the Cloud. MortgageExchange™ sends and receives your software data without errors, with efficiency and security combined.

Right Data, Right Place, Real-time:

In today's fast-paced mortgage environment, you need the right data, in the right place, and in real-time to remain competitive.

Standards-Based Methods:

ABT utilizes widely accepted standards in all facets of our development and services. We also build your interface to meet regulatory compliance standards. ABT's SSAE16 Type II audit certification ensures our compliance with today's banking standard regulations.

Broad Product Lines:

ABT currently provides dozens of cross-application, business intelligent integrations that give our clients excellent control over their business processes. A list of the current software platforms we have built to date are listed in the graphic on the front of this brochure. If your desired connector is not listed, please contact us.
