

Straight A Training Complaints Policy and Procedure

Straight A Training is committed to providing a quality service for its learners, staff, partners and employers and working in an open and accountable way that builds the trust and respect of all our stakeholders. Straight A Training places a significant emphasis on customer feedback and views the complaints process as a valuable tool to drive improvements in the quality of its services. The policy of Straight A Training is to respond to all suggestions, whether positive or negative, in a prompt and courteous manner. All complaints will be treated seriously.

Therefore, we aim to ensure that:

Making a complaint is as easy as possible

Treat all complaints as a clear expression of dissatisfaction with our service provision which calls for an immediate response

Deal with all issues, concerns and complaints promptly, politely and, when appropriate, confidentially

Ensure to respond in the current manner and in line with Straight A Training's values and standards

Learn from complaints, using them to improve our service, and review annually our complaints policy and procedures.

Ensure all complaints are dealt in a fair and equal manner and in accordance with equality requirements

We recognise that many concerns will be raised informally and dealt with quickly. Our aims are to:

Resolve informal concerns quickly and in a suitable way

Enable mediation between the complainant and the individual to whom the complaint has been referred.

An informal approach is appropriate when it can be achieved. If it is not possible to resolve concerns informally to a satisfactory degree then the formal complaints procedure will be followed.

Complaints Procedure Overview

The formal complaints procedure is intended to ensure that all complaints are handled fairly, consistently and wherever possible resolved to the complainant's satisfaction.

Straight A Training's responsibility will be to:

Ensure that complaints are taken seriously and dealt with promptly.

Ensure complaints are replied to within 48 hours (working days) from when the complaint is received. If it is not possible to provide a full reply within this time (for instance, because a detailed investigation is required), an interim response, explaining actions being taken to deal with the complaint, key staff involved, timescales for next steps and resolution.

Provide a full reply in regards to the outcome and decision of the complaint, what action will be taken if necessary, and also will include details of who to contact next if the complaining believes the complaint has not been dealt with properly

Deal reasonably and sensitively with the complaint;

Take action where appropriate.

A complainant's responsibility is to:

Bring their complaint, where possible in writing to Straight A Training's attention, normally within 6 weeks of the issue arising. Straight A Training ensures to comply with obligations under both the Equality Act 2010 and Data Protection Act 2018. Where a complaint cannot be submitted in writing due to disability or learning difficulties and providers must allow alternative methods of contact.

Initial complaints are required to be submitted to:

Email: quality@straighta.co.uk

Allow Straight A Training's a reasonable time to deal with the matter. Straight A Training will respond to the complaint within 2 weeks of receipt, but the resolution may take longer.

Except in exceptional circumstances, every attempt will be made to ensure that both the complainant and Straight A Training maintain confidentiality. However, the circumstances giving rise to the complaint may be such that it may not be possible to maintain confidentiality (with each complaint judged on its own merit). Should this be the case, the situation will be explained to the complainant.
