

IQ ACADEMY

Level 3 Certificate in Safety, Health and Environmental Knowledge for the Extractives and Mineral Processing Industries

Our Level 3 Certificate has been developed to provide an in-depth understanding of essential elements required for an individual’s career development in the extractives and mineral processing industries.

It delivers a firm foundation of knowledge in key elements of Safety, Health and Environmental processes and procedures, alongside additional complimentary key areas such as leadership and communication techniques and theory.

The Institute of Quarrying

Tel: +44 (0)115 972 9995 | Email: mail@quarrying.org | Web: www.quarrying.org

Level 3 Certificate in Safety, Health and Environmental Knowledge for the Extractives and Mineral Processing Industries

Audience

Upcoming Managers and Supervisors looking to promote their development in readiness for future leadership roles.

Content

- Factors Contributing to Health and Safety Improvement
- Awareness of Workplace Hazards and Controls
- Awareness of Managing Health and Safety at Mineral Extraction Sites
- Appreciation of Health and Safety Risk Assessments, Legislation and Equipment
- Accident and or Incident Investigation
- Emergency Planning and Evacuation Procedures
- Requirements and Processes for Safe Systems and Permits to Work
- Awareness of the Safe Guarding of Machinery
- Legislation and Procedures for Lone Working
- Awareness of Quarry Design and Operation
- Awareness of Environmental Impacts and Training
- Awareness of Communication and Leadership

Key Learning Points

- An understanding of factors contributing to health and safety improvement
- Awareness of workplace hazards and controls
- An appreciation of health and safety risk assessments, legislation and equipment
- Awareness of managing health and safety at mineral extraction sites
- Understanding of accident and incident investigation procedures
- Emergency planning and evacuation procedures
- Requirements and processes for safe systems and permits to work
- Awareness of the safe guarding of machinery
- Legislation and procedures for lone working
- An insight into quarry design and operation
- Awareness of environmental impacts and training
- An understanding of communication and leadership

Delivery & Duration

The undertaking makes use of the IQ Applied Training initiative, bringing together elements of online learning and face-to-face tutorial days, providing greater flexibility to the qualification, whilst creating greater outcomes for both individuals and organisations.

The course duration runs to 12 months, taking place across 3 face-to-face tutorials and 12 online units.

Cost

The course cost of £1,645+VAT additionally includes your first-year membership to the IQ, access to the Learning Management System and ongoing support from one of our IQ Assessors.

Looking to find out more?

Contact our Head of Education, Julian Smallshaw for an informal chat on +44 (0)115 972 9995 or Julian.Smallshaw@quarrying.org