EVOLVE OR DIE WEBINAR

by Agnieszka
Pędzimaż, Daniel Bacik
and Jana Chynoradska

21 st June Evolve or Die webinar has just finished and we THANK all the participants who have stayed, contributed and learnt with us today. In order to succeed in the practical application of the LEARN & LEAD philosophy, you approach the person with LOVE and share your needs to LIVE a happy life. We have the passion, willingness and energy to go on and spread this learning experience to as many people in the world as possible. The summary of the Webinar includes:

Expectations:

- Quality among schools and in education
- To work more and achieve
- New people meeting
- We are here but we look where we will be
- To enjoy
- To get clear about the message.
- Learn more and transform
- New teaching also is very interesting

Why do we need to change?

- to have a better relationships
- to be more progressive
- everything is changing so we also need to change
- we need to be open to a change
- we need to follow the change if we want to live better lives, however, people naturally dislike the change

What to do need to do to change?

- First - change the mindset of the whole organisations
- changes are good when they take place slowly
- too fast changes make people exhausted

How do we change?

- by changing thinking
- by improving our lifes
- By educating - learning and change go hand in hand with education

Why to change?
Theory + reasons for change a transformation

Tomas Bata University in Zlín (TBU) is a progressive and modern university following the current trends of higher education in Europe and in the world. With a current student population of more than 8,000, TBU ranks among medium-sized Czech universities. Rector of the University is Prof. Ing. Vladimír Sedlařík, Ph.D.. TBU is comprised of six faculties offering to students the possibility to study technology, economics, management, natural sciences, informatics, humanities, arts, logistics and health care. Since its establishment, hundreds of highly-qualified professionals have received education at the University. The University is named after Tomas Bata, a world-renowned entrepreneur and founder of the shoe industry in Zlín. He played a significant role in the transformation of life in the town of Zlín as well as in the whole Czech Republic and of its economy because he ingeniously connected business and society together. The proposed project will be managed at the Faculty of Management and Economics (FaME) of TBU. FaME is a research-rich, business-focused and internationally-oriented faculty with a global reputation for academic excellence. The Faculty is a modern educational and scientific institution that ranks among top economic faculties in the Czech Republic. Recently, FaME has been ranked as the best economics-oriented faculty in the Czech Republic in the field of Business and Economics based on the Times Higher Education University Index.

Pučko otvoreno učilište Vinkovci is an institution for adult education established in 2006 in Vinkovci with a branch-office in Vukovar, eastern Croatia. We primarily provide programmes for development of transversal skills of adults (key competences) in the fields of foreign languages and digital competences. Apart from adults, we offer informal and popular foreign languages programmes for young learners and teenagers. Our staff currently comprises of 13 paid employees: teachers and administrative staff. This school year 420 students are taking part in our numerous educational programmes and courses.

Centrum Edukacyjne Feniks Sp. z o.o. is a language school founded in December 2007. At the beginning, the activity of the school was mainly focused on individual classes, mainly in French. We currently run courses (individual and group) for individuals and companies including children, adolescents and adults. Since 2015, we have been a licensed center of the Teddy Eddie method and since 2017 also the Savvy Ed method. Our Center is registered in the Register of Training Institutions kept by the Voivodship Labor Office under the number 2.12 / 00214/2010. In addition, in December 2010 Centrum Feniks cooperated with the Małopolska Teacher Training Center based in Krakow as part of the project Modernization of the training system for vocational schools staff in Małopolska financed by the European Union. As part of the above-mentioned program, we conducted training in English and German.

Europejskie Centrum Językowe Summit was established in 1998 and it was founded with a fascination for teaching foreign languages and teaching others. At the beginning as a very small school consisting of two teachers and 30 students, the school has gradually developed into much bigger organisation offering courses of English, German, Spanish, French, Italian or Russian. Currently ECJ Summit provides courses focusing on different age groups and all levels in three towns, Rabka-Zdrój, Mszana Dolna nad Nowy Targ. In addition to general course of foreign languages, we hold the status of Cambridge Pretesting Centre since 2006, which means that our students participate in pretests of Cambridge Exams and Preparation Centre.
