

Publish with Confidence

iThenticate Lowers Risk of Retractions and Protects the Publishers' Reputation

When iThenticate is a core part of the publication process, it can help editors flag questionable content before they run the risk of retractions. Avoid the damage, embarrassment and cost that plagiarism can bring. Instead, build your reputation by publishing high quality, plagiarism free research with confidence.

“ iThenticate is an incredibly powerful tool. I run each and every new submission through iThenticate before I even think about inviting peer reviewers to review the paper. Keep up the good work! ”

-Jim Dooley, Associate Editor, Integrated Systems and Economic International Journal of Greenhouse Gas Control
